
Title: A Call To Arms!

Author: Dark Rose

Ah, my friend it appears in reading this, you have indeed considered heeding Brittania's call.

The ophidians are taking lives in Papua, and thus tightening their grasp on Brittania as a whole! We need your help and we need it now!!!

Brittania's guarding forces are not strong enough to hold them back. Only with strong fighters such as yourself offering assistance, is it possible to defeat them and get one step further in our liberation of Brittania.

The children cannot play outside from fear, farmer's can't harvest crops because they are frightened for their lives, and women cannot go to town, because they want to come back alive.

Something needs to be done. Only then, will Brittanians truly rest easier. All individuals interested in helping liberate the town of Papua are requested to meet at the Castle of Lord British at 7 o'clock eastern of this day August 20th. Only together can we truly defeat the ophidians!
